 - (i) is not resident in the Island; and
 - (ii) who enters the Island in order to provide services which are essential to the medical infrastructure of the Island and the health of its community.
- (5) For the avoidance of doubt —

- (a) the Department of Infrastructure and the Department of Health and Social Care may certify a person that is a company or other body under paragraph (1)(a)(i) or (ii); and
 - (b) the Chief Secretary may specify a person that is a company or other body under paragraph (8),
- and where such person is so certified or specified, the prohibition in regulation 5 does not apply to the entry of an individual acting in the employment or service of that certified or specified person.
- (6) In paragraph (1), “certified” means certified by the Chief Executive or a person duly authorised for the purpose by the Chief Executive, of the Department of Infrastructure, the Department of Health and Social Care or the Department of Home Affairs.
 - (7) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), the Chief Secretary may specify in an exemption notice a person to whom the prohibition in regulation 5 is not to apply.
 - (8) A person may be specified —
 - (a) in an exemption notice made under paragraph (7), only if the Chief Secretary considers that the failure to exempt a person to whom the prohibition in regulation 5 applies, poses a greater risk to public safety and the life of the community, as a direct or indirect result of the incidence or transmission of Coronavirus; and
 - (b) in a certificate made under paragraph (1) or in an exemption notice made under paragraph (7), only if the Department of Infrastructure, the Department of Health and Social Care, the Department of Home Affairs or the Chief Secretary considers that such measures are put in place as are reasonably practicable to mitigate any risks associated with making a certificate or an exemption notice.
 - (9) For the purpose of enabling the Chief Secretary and a Department by which a certificate may be issued to consider whether they are satisfied as to the matters in paragraph (8) —
 - (a) the applicant must supply such information as the Chief Secretary or the Department may reasonably require; and
 - (b) the Chief Secretary or the Department may make enquiries of such persons as they consider necessary for the purpose of verifying the information supplied under this regulation.¹¹
 - (10) A certificate issued under paragraph (1) and an exemption notice under paragraph (7) must specify —
 - (a) the person who is exempted from the prohibition in regulation 5 (“an exempted person”);
 - (b) the time at which the certificate or exemption notice takes effect;

- (c) the period of time for which the certificate or exemption notice has effect (the “exemption period”);
 - (d) whether the exemption permits entry by the person on more than one occasion during the exemption period;
 - (e) any arrangements that must be made by the exempted person or another which are reasonably incidental to the certificate or exemption notice in order to minimise the incidence or transmission of Coronavirus; and
 - (f) any other conditions the Chief Secretary or the Department issuing a certificate consider reasonably necessary.
- (11) The exemption period shall end on the earlier of —
- (a) the date specified in the certificate or exemption notice; or
 - (b) if a date is not specified in the certificate or exemption notice, 7 days after the end of the Coronavirus Proclamation period.
- (12) In this regulation, a reference to the United Kingdom is to be construed as a reference to the United Kingdom, the Republic of Ireland and the Channel Islands.¹²

7 Exemption: residents of the Island

- (1) The prohibition in regulation 5 does not apply to a resident of the Island who —
- (a) the Department of Health and Social Care has certified is returning to the Island after having undergone essential medical treatment; or
 - (b) the Chief Secretary has specified in an exemption notice under paragraph (3).
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), the Department of Health and Social Care may certify an individual only if it is satisfied that such measures are put in place as are reasonably practicable to mitigate any risks associated with the individual’s return to the Island.
- (3) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(b), the Chief Secretary may specify in an exemption notice a person to whom the prohibition in regulation 5 does not apply only if satisfied that —
- (a) in cases, other than a case to which subparagraph (b) applies —
 - (i) the individual did not leave the Island on or after 0630 on 27 March 2020; and
 - (ii) such measures are put in place as are reasonably practicable to mitigate any risks associated with making an exemption notice in respect of that individual;
 - (b) in the case of an individual to whom paragraph (4), (5) or (6) applies, only if satisfied that such measures are put in place as are reasonably practicable to mitigate any risks associated with making an exemption notice in respect of that individual, provided that in the case of a person to whom paragraph (5) applies an exemption notice may be issued on only one occasion.¹³

- (4) This paragraph applies where the Chief Secretary is satisfied that –
- (a) the individual who re-enters the Island does so –
 - (i) after having left the Island but having remained within the Island’s territorial sea, for a business or leisure activity; or
 - (ii) after having left the Island and the Island’s territorial sea, for a business activity;
 - (b) the business or leisure activity referred to in sub-paragraph (a) is one which is specified for the purpose of this regulation on www.gov.im;
 - (c) undertaking the business or leisure activity does not breach any regulations made under the Emergency Powers Act 1936; and
 - (d) in a case to which paragraph (4)(a)(ii) applies, between leaving and re-entering the Island, the individual will not enter any other country or territory.
- (5) This paragraph applies in the case of an individual who enters the Island after having travelled to the United Kingdom or the Republic of Ireland on compassionate grounds and where –
- (a) the individual left the Island between 0630 on 27th March 2020 and the date on which these Regulations come into operation; and
 - (b) such measures are put in place as are reasonably practicable to mitigate any risks associated with making an exemption notice in respect of that individual.
- (6) This paragraph applies where the Chief Secretary is satisfied that –
- (a) the individual who re-enters the Island does so after having left the Island but having remained within the airspace above the Island’s territorial sea; and
 - (b) the purpose for which the individual leaves the Island is as part of the crew of a general aviation aircraft and the flight –
 - (i) will remain within the airspace above the territorial sea;
 - (ii) is necessary in order to comply with the requirements or guidelines of the manufacturer of the aircraft’s engine or the flight crew licensing requirements or conditions of any national state of licence issue as those requirements, conditions or guidelines relate to engine health or crew currency;
 - (iii) is completed within Isle of Man Airport opening hours as published on www.gov.im; and

- (iv) is recorded by the owner or operator of the aircraft in accordance with paragraph (7).
- (7) The record referred to in paragraph (6)(b)(iv) must include –
- (a) the purpose of the flight;
 - (b) the aircraft registration mark;
 - (c) the name and licence number of the pilot; and
 - (d) the date, time and duration of the flight,
- and must be provided to any Department upon request.
- (8) In paragraph (4)(d) “any other country or territory” does not include the territorial sea adjacent to any other country or territory.
- (9) An individual is to be regarded as being a resident in the Island if but only if –
- (a) the individual is the owner of a dwelling in the Island and at any time in the period of 12 months ending immediately before the date on which he or she intends to enter the Isle of Man has resided at that dwelling;¹⁴
 - (b) the individual has a contract of tenancy (within the meaning of the Landlord and Tenant Act 1954) in relation to a dwelling in the Island and the individual has resided at that dwelling at any time in the period of 12 months ending immediately before the date on which he or she intends to enter the Isle of Man;¹⁵
 - (c) the individual has otherwise established his or her permanent home in a dwelling in the Island at any time in the period of 12 months ending immediately before the date on which he or she intends to enter the Isle of Man and continues to maintain his or her permanent home there;¹⁶
 - (d) the individual is a student or has been a student in the period of 12 months ending immediately before the date on which he or she intends to enter the Isle of Man and has available to him or her a dwelling in which he or she may take up occupation upon his or her return to the Island;¹⁷
 - (e) immediately before leaving the Island, the individual’s permanent home was with a person to whom subparagraph (a) or (b) applies and with whom the individual will again reside upon his or her return to the Island; or
 - (f) in the case of an individual who works elsewhere than in the Island, the individual is otherwise able to satisfy the Chief Secretary that the Island is his or her main place of residence.
- (9A) Where a person does not fall within paragraph (9)(a), (b), (c) or (d) on account of the period of time specified, the Chief Secretary may grant an exemption notice in respect of the person provided he is satisfied that the Island is the person's main place of residence.¹⁸

- (10) An application for an exemption issued by the Chief Secretary under paragraph (1)(b) must be made –
 - (a) in respect of an individual aged 18 years and over, by the individual; and
 - (b) in respect of a child, by a responsible adult.
- (11) For the purpose of enabling the Chief Secretary to consider whether he is satisfied as to the matters in paragraphs (3) to (6), (9)(f) and (9A) –
 - (a) the applicant must supply such information as the Chief Secretary may reasonably require; and
 - (b) the Chief Secretary may make enquiries of such persons as he considers necessary for the purpose of verifying the information supplied under this regulation.¹⁹
- (12) A certificate under paragraph (1)(a) and an exemption notice under paragraph (1)(b) must specify –
 - (a) the individual who is exempt from the prohibition in regulation 5 (“an exempt individual”);
 - (b) the time at which the certificate or exemption notice takes effect;
 - (c) the date on which, or the dates within which, the individual is permitted to enter the Island;
 - (d) the method of travel by which the exempt individual may travel to the Island;
 - (e) the conditions on which the exempt individual is permitted to travel to the Island and the circumstances when he or she must not travel, despite the issuance of the certificate or exemption notice;
 - (f) any arrangements that must be made by the exempt individual or another which are reasonably incidental to the certificate or exemption notice in order to minimise the incidence or transmission of Coronavirus; and
 - (g) any other conditions the Chief Secretary or the Department issuing a certificate consider reasonably necessary.
- (13) Other than in a case to which paragraph (1)(a) applies, the conditions under paragraph (12)(e) and (g) must include the condition that the exempt individual (or, in the case of a child, the responsible adult for that child) is liable to pay all the costs incurred and associated with his or her re-entry into the Island including (but not limited to) the costs for –
 - (a) accommodation or transport outside the Island;
 - (b) any medical assessment outside the Island;
 - (c) travel to the Island and any food or accommodation provided during the voyage to the Island; and

- (d) any food and accommodation costs during a period of quarantine in the Island.²⁰
- (14) The arrangements under paragraph (12)(f) must include provision for a person (other than a person to whom paragraph (4) or (6) applies), before the exempt individual commences his or her voyage to the Island, to conduct such health checks upon the exempt individual and ask such questions about the health of the exempt individual as are considered to be necessary to establish whether the exempt individual has contracted, or is suspected of having contracted Coronavirus.²¹
- (15) The exemption period shall end on the earlier of —
 - (a) the date specified in the certificate or exemption notice; or
 - (b) if a date is not specified in the certificate or exemption notice, 7 days after the end of the Coronavirus Proclamation period.
- (16) In this regulation —
 - (a) “child” means a person under the age of 18 years;
 - (b) “owner” in relation to a dwelling means an owner of an estate in fee simple in land or the owner of a leasehold estate (within the meaning of the Land Registration Act 1982) or, in relation to a dwelling in another jurisdiction, an owner with a similar right in land under the law of that jurisdiction;
 - (c) “responsible adult”, in relation to a child, means —
 - (i) a person who has custody or charge of the child for the time being, or
 - (ii) a person with parental responsibility for the child;
 - (d) the reference to a person with parental responsibility for a child has the same meaning as in Children and Young Persons Act 2001.

8 Exemption: emergency services

The prohibition in regulation 5 does not apply to an individual who is employed or engaged in —

- (a) emergency search and rescue services;
- (b) air ambulance services;
- (c) as an air accident inspector with the United Kingdom Air Accidents Investigation Branch,²² at times when that individual is providing such emergency services provided that such measures are put in place as are reasonably practicable to mitigate any risks associated with the entry into the Island of the individual.

9 Exemption: secure transportation area

The prohibition in regulation 5 does not apply to a person who enters an exempt area that is secured for the purpose of transportation in accordance with a direction made by the Department of Infrastructure and remains within the area until the person leaves the Island, provided that such measures are put in place as are reasonably practicable to mitigate any risks associated with the entry into the Island of the individual.

10 Exemption: compassionate grounds

- (1) The prohibition in regulation 5 does not apply to an individual to whom the Chief Secretary has given prior written consent to enter the Island on compassionate grounds.
- (2) In the case of an individual to whom consent may be given under paragraph (1) who is resident in the Island the Chief Secretary may request such information as is necessary to satisfy himself that the Island is the person's main place of residence.²³
- (3) A consent given under paragraph (1) must provide that such measures are put in place as are reasonably practicable to mitigate any risks associated with giving consent in respect of that individual.
- (4) Regulation 7(10) to (15) and (16)(a), (c) and (d) apply to this regulation as they apply to an exemption notice under regulation 7 but as if references in those paragraphs to "an exemption notice" were references to a consent given under paragraph (1).²⁴

10A Exemption: contractual obligation

- (1) The prohibition in regulation 5 does not apply to an individual to whom the Chief Secretary has given prior written consent to enter the Island.
- (2) An individual to whom consent may be given under paragraph (1) is a person whom the Chief Secretary is satisfied intends to make the Island his or her main place of residence and who has entered into a legally binding contract in relation to —
 - (a) a permanent office or employed position; or
 - (b) the purchase or lease of premises,in the Island.
- (3) A consent given under paragraph (1) must provide that such measures are put in place as are reasonably practicable to mitigate any risks associated with giving consent in respect of that individual.
- (4) Regulation 7(10) to (15) and (16)(a), (c) and (d) apply to this regulation as they apply to an exemption notice under regulation 7 but as if references in those paragraphs to "an exemption notice" were references to a consent given under paragraph (1).²⁵

10B Exemption: planning appeal inquiries

- (1) The prohibition in regulation 5 does not apply to an individual to whom the Chief Secretary has given prior written consent to enter the Island.
- (2) An individual to whom consent may be given under paragraph (1) is a person whom the Chief Secretary is satisfied is —
 - (a) a planning inspector, as defined in the Town and Country Planning (Development Procedure) Order 2019⁴; or
 - (b) an expert or professional with appropriate and essential expertise, whose attendance is necessary at a planning appeal inquiry.
- (3) A consent given under paragraph (1) must provide that such measures are put in place as are reasonably practicable to mitigate any risks associated with giving consent in respect of that individual.
- (4) Paragraphs (10) to (15) of regulation 7 apply to this regulation as they apply to an exemption notice under regulation 7 but as if references in those paragraphs to “an exemption notice” were references to a consent given under paragraph (1).²⁶

11 Emergency Powers (Potentially Infectious Persons) Regulations 2020 not affected

The issue of a certificate, exemption notice or consent and the application of an exemption to a person under these Regulations does not affect the application of the Emergency Powers (Potentially Infectious Persons) Regulations 2020⁵ to the person.

12 Revocation of certificate, exemption notice or consent

- (1) The Chief Secretary may at any time revoke an exemption notice or consent under these Regulations if no longer satisfied that the exemption or consent is appropriate.
- (2) The Department of Health and Social Care, the Department of Infrastructure or the Department of Home Affairs may at any time revoke a certificate under these Regulations if the Department is no longer satisfied that the certificate is appropriate.

13 Offences
